Guidance Notes for Tenants

Welcome to your Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement. It is an important document as it will govern your relationship both with the Landlord of your new property and with the letting or managing Agent for the whole of the time that you are actually in residence. As such you should read the document through carefully and raise any queries with the letting Agent who gave you this Agreement.

At the same time, please be aware that you have the right to seek independent advice if you wish either from your solicitor or other advice agency.

As well as this Agreement, you may be asked to sign the Check-In or Inventory which will list the Landlord's Fixtures and Fittings and the other items which the Landlord provides for your use during the Tenancy. You will also be given copies of the following documents either on or before the start of your Tenancy:

- Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) for your property
- A current Gas Safety Certificate for your property—if there is a gas supply
- Details of the scheme with which your Deposit will be registered, including details as to how you will recover your Deposit on your departure
- A check-list of the key Deposit registration information generally described as 'Prescribed Information'

If any of these documents are not received either on or before the start of your Tenancy, please speak with your letting Agent as these documents are just as important as the Agreement itself.
